Refund Policy

Deposits are fully refundable until April 1. Cancellations between April 1 and Opening Day are subject to a $500 fee.

Late arrivals and early departures must be arranged beforehand and are pro-rated at the discretion of the camp, subject to an $800 deductible. There will be no tuition refund allowed if a camper is sent home because of actions which threaten or are detrimental to the camp community (this includes any camper use of illegal drugs, alcohol, or cigarettes; if a camper is out of his cabin at night or leaves camp grounds without supervision; or if a camper physically, emotionally, or verbally abuses any member of the community).

A signed enrollment form provides the camp:

- Permission to allow photographs, videotapes, and interviews in which your camper may appear to be taken during the camping session and consent to publish and use these to illustrate, report, promote and advertise the camp. Use of any such photographs, videotapes, or interviews may include, but is not limited to, use of these on Internet web sites promoting or reporting on the camp.
- Medical Authorization: to provide for your camper routine health care, administer prescription and over-the-counter medications, and seek medical treatment, including ordering x-rays or routine tests; to release any records necessary for treatment, referral, billing, or insurance purposes and to provide or arrange necessary transportation for the camper; for any physician, nurse, or other health care provider to communicate with the medical staff and director about the camper’s medical condition, treatment, and/or prognosis; for the camp’s medical staff to discuss any medical condition with the director or the camper’s counselor when the medical staff believes such communication to be in the best interest of the child; for a physician selected by the camp director to secure and administer emergency treatment, including hospitalization, for the camper, in the event that none of the emergency contacts can be reached.
- Your acknowledgement that the camping experience involves activities and group living arrangements and interactions that may be new to your child and that they come with certain risks and uncertainties beyond what the child may be used to dealing with at home. You assume these risks on behalf of your child and have instructed him/her on the importance of abiding by the camp’s rules and regulations set for the health, safety, and welfare of the children at camp.
- Your acknowledgement that clothes and personal belongings, including sports equipment, will be stored and handled at the camp's discretion to ensure safety. The camp is not responsible for loss or damage to these items. Please do not allow campers to bring unnecessary or expensive items to camp.
- The permission to participate in camp activities, a sampling of which follows, and to leave camp premises for camp activities. Restrictions to any activities need to be noted on the confidential and medical forms.
